MESSAGE FROM THE EAST

Masters Message

Brethren

Please join us for our annual Breakfast with Santa Event on Saturday December 4th 8am – 12pm. On Friday December 10th will be the Public Installation of Officers.

Thank you for allowing me to serve as Master of the Lodge in 2010. I have learned a great deal from many of you. The lodge as a whole has had a great impact on me as well. With that, I bid you adieu as Master with the following poem. It is not necessarily Masonic, but you will find it applies in many ways.

I watched them tearing a building down,
 A gang of men in a busy town.
 With a ho-heave-ho and a lusty yell,
 They swung a beam and the sides fell.
 I asked the foreman, "Are these men skilled
 And the kind you would hire, if you had to build?"
 And he gave a laugh and said, No indeed,
 Just common labor is all I need.
 I can easily wreck in a day or two
 What other builders have taken a year to do."
 And I thought to myself as I went my way,
 "Which of these roles have I tried to play?
 Am I a builder that works with care
 Measuring life by the rule and square.
 Am I shaping my deeds to a well made plan,
 Patiently doing the best I can?
 Or am I a wrecker who walks the town,
 Content with the labor of tearing down."

Best Regards,

Dale Hartung, Worshipful Master

Temple Topics December 2010

Sir Knights and Ladies,

December is the time for Christian Knights to observe the Birth of Christ. Waukesha Commandery will hold our Annual Christmas Observance at 6:15 PM with our Pot Luck Dinner in the Lodge Dining Room. If you only make one Commandery Meeting during the year; this is the one to make. Wear your uniform if you have one, if not wear business casual suit and bring your family and a dish to pass. The Commandery will supply the Baked Ham and you are requested to bring a "go with dish". Vegetable, salads, breads and deserts are options. Keep in mind that it is "Pot Luck" when you make your selection.

Homecoming and Inspection is on January 29, 2011 and that is approaching rapidly. We can practice on December 27th, January 10th and January 24th. We need your support and attendance. Even if you do not have a full uniform, come help us practice and learn the ritual of a Knight Templar.

We wish all a Merry Christmas!
Homer Armagost, EC

Companions; As we continue the short break from our Labors, please remember those who are shut-in or need a hand during the Christmas season. This is also a time when we all need to be thankful for that which we have received as well as lend a hand to those less fortunate.

From the song “the Twelve Days of Christmas,” we find the “three French hens” were faith, hope and love-the three gifts of the Spirit that abide.

If you were to read 1 Corinthians 13, verse 13; “And now abideth faith, hope, charity, these three; but the greatest of these is charity.”

Interestingly, these are also the three principal rounds of that mystic ladder of Freemasonry, and it is the cornerstone of this, our Masonic Fraternity.

The words “Love” and “Charity” are quite synonymous, for without Love, there is no Charity; and there is no Charity without Love. Both words denoting that kindly state of mind which renders a person full of good-will and affectionate regard toward others.

Remember Companions, Charity, no matter what form it may take, whether it be material or financial, is what sets our Fraternity apart.

Please attend the Annual Christmas Observance. The date is December 5, 2010 and again will be held at Lake Masonic Temple. This is open to all so bring your families, friends or prospective members and enjoy the day with others.

A flyer is attached.

Tentatively, we will be conferring both the Royal Master and Select Master Degrees at the January and February Assemblies, as is our usual custom.

Dear Companions,

As I write this it brings to mind that a year is ending. “Have a Merry Christmas” and “Happy New Years” is the customary greetings and what does it mean? Every year it means something different in a way as we reflect on the present year; so- the best to you, your family and our world.

Our meeting in December will be on the 13th. We will again have our Pot Luck Dinner with ham being provided. This will be the Commandery Christmas Observance and all are invited.

Best wishes for Christmas and the New Year.

Walt Lohman, H.P.
